ABOUT MINISTRY OF FINANCE CALL FOR PAPER 2026

I. GENERAL

The Ministry of Finance Call for Paper 2026, organized by the Directorate General of Taxes in collaboration with the Directorate General of Economic and Fiscal Strategy, is an academic initiative that invites researchers, academics, practitioners, and policy analysts, both from within Indonesia and abroad, to submit scientific papers that focus on the area of taxation. All submissions will undergo a rigorous selection and review process, and selected authors will be invited to present their work at the International Tax Conference 2026. In addition, participants will have the opportunity to win Best Paper Awards and prizes. Selected papers will also have the opportunity to be published in Scientax: Jurnal Kajian Ilmiah Perpajakan Indonesia (ejurnal.pajak.go.id), a SINTA 3-indexed journal, or as a part of an edited volume to be published by Gramedia.

The Ministry of Finance Call for Paper 2026 objectives are listed as follows:

1. To produce rigorous analyses and papers in the area of state revenue policies aligned with the theme (evaluation or policy recommendations);
2. To advance and broaden insights into the implementation of state revenue policies in Indonesia;
3. To promote fair and impartial analyses from external stakeholders; and
4. To contribute to the development and implementation of forward-looking state revenue policies.
